September 2010 – Present

I have been teaching English in public high schools in Alborz Province since 2010. As a high school teacher, I have had to prepare lessons and teach English to students according to guidelines set by the education authorities.

Besides, I have also delivered English classes (mainly A1-B2 levels) to adult and young adult learners in private language institutes. 'English Result', 'American Headway', 'American English File', 'Interchange' and 'Touchstone' have been among the most notable English courses that I have taught over the years.

- Translator and Content Writer, Nahalgasht Travel Agency

May 2022 – November 2022

I was in charge of translating articles from the websites of Canadian Universities and colleges into Persian, and ultimately writing Persian content for the company's website.

- Administrative Assistant, Shahbaz Espad Alborz Sports Club

June 2018 – January 2020

I was in charge of all the duties related to the registration of players in different age groups and collecting the required documents to enroll in different provincial competitions.

- Translator, Tamaddon-e Elmi Publication

May 2015 – January 2016

I translated the book 'Goal Setting for Success' by Annabelle Beckwith into Persian for Tamaddon-e Elmi Publication. Permission was granted from the online publisher of the book -- BookBoon.com -- and the author before the start of the project.

This book is an absolutely mind opening piece of work that helped me better understand my skills and plan for the future which I had dreamed of for years.
